

Madam or Sir,

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election, if not clearly illegal at the federal level, is at least indubitably underhanded and unethical, and symptomatic of the problems inherent to a modern deregulated media environment.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, and to observe election laws and ethics. Please do not allow this action by Sinclair - waiting until after the program airs to punish or fine the company will be too late, and this unfair public endorsement will be effectively permanent.

By refusing to prevent such an action by a media corporation, the FCC WOULD BE COMPLICIT IN THE TRANSGRESSION - and this would be scandalous corruption beyond measure, comparable in its debasement to political atrocities in late nineteenth campaigns, and to yellow journalism. If Sinclair has found a loophole, it is the responsibility of the FCC to preemptively close it.

Thank you,
Bryan Nuse
